LORIMER WAS OUT TO WIN; WAS OF OLD SCHOOL OF POLITICIANS

Man Who Was Democratic Candidate for Senator Testifies Today Before Investigation Committee.

NEWSPAPER REPORTER PLACED ON STAND

Stringer Gave Out Impression That He Quit Because "Consideration" Was Asked That He Couldn't Furnish.

(By Evening Herald A. P. Leased Wire)
Washington, July 29.—Today in Congress. Not in session. Lorimer election investigation continued. House. Met at noon. Cotton revision bill debate continued.

Washington, July 29.—Lawrence H. Stringer, Democratic candidate for senator against Lorimer, testifying before the Lorimer election committee today, told of Lorimer's popularity with the Democratic legislators but at the conclusion of his evidence expressed the opinion that improper or corrupt practices was an ingredient entering into Lorimer's election.

Edward O. Phillips, a Chicago Herald-Herald reporter who worked in Springfield during the session of the legislature in 1909, was the only other witness today. He said former Governor Yates was his authority for a newspaper article he wrote on January 6, 1909, to the effect that Lorimer would be elected by the combination of Democrats and Republicans that elected Shurtleff speaker. If Lorimer would consent, Phillips said in conversation with Lawrence H. Stringer the day before the election of Lorimer he gathered the impression that Stringer was out of the race because a "consideration had been asked of him that he could not furnish."

The committee adjourned till Monday, when Phillips will be cross-examined.

Senator Johnston took an unusual interest in the long list of Democrats who received complimentary rates during the meeting of the legislature in 1909.

"No Democrat of prominence was safe from a complimentary rate," he quipped the senator.

"That is about true," replied Mr. Stringer.

Senator Kern had the witness to break down much of the favorable testimony which Mr. Stringer had given in behalf of Lorimer.

"Was it generally understood that Senator Lorimer stood for the good things or things that were not good?" asked Senator Kern.

"I think it was the general impression that Senator Lorimer was of the school of politicians that adopted the policy of winning the elections," replied Mr. Stringer. This answer did not satisfy Senator Kern.

"Was it understood that Senator Lorimer stood for what Bryan did, for instance, in politics?"

"I do not think he was in the same class with Bryan."

"Did you regard the election had resulted from a good and wholesome combination?"

"No, I did not think it was."

From the time the story about an attempt to buy votes for Hopkins, Mr. Stringer said, an air of suspicion hung over affairs in Springfield and enveloped the election of Senator Lorimer. He explained he congratulated Lorimer because it was the courteous thing to do and he had no evidence himself that anything was wrong.

"Do you think that the termination of the contest was due to the general mix-up and the desire to end it without regard to party consequences, or was it the result of improper and corrupt practices?" Senator Kenton asked the witness.

"I am inclined to think that the ingredients you mentioned on both sides of the question assisted in bringing about the result, but to what extent I don't know."

House.

ABSORPTION OF THE TENNESSEE COKE COMPANY WAS NOT ILLEGAL

Brokerage Firm Saved From Ruin in 1907 Through Deal According to Testimony Introduced Today.

MORGAN DID NOT ENGINEER THE DEAL

(By Evening Herald A. P. Leased Wire)
New York, July 29.—That the brokerage firm of Moore and Schlesinger, that was saved from ruin in 1907 through the purchase of the Tennessee Coal and Iron company by the United States Steel corporation, owed nothing to J. P. Morgan and company, which was secured by Tennessee Coal and Iron stock, as collateral, was today revealed to the steel trust investigating committee by Lewis C. Laddard.

Representative Littleton asked Mr. Laddard about the nature of Moore and Schlesinger loans. He mentioned several and then said: "The firm of J. P. Morgan and company has loaned the firm considerable money."

"Was it secured by Tennessee Coal and Iron stock?" asked Mr. Littleton.

"Yes it was, but the Morgan firm has never bothered Moore and Schlesinger and did not call the loan."

Following his statement about the Morgan loan, Mr. Laddard denounced the inference that may have been made concerning a conspiracy in the Tennessee transactions.

"There never was a more infamous outrage than the suggestion that has been made that either Mr. Morgan or the United States Steel corporation brought about, engineered or inspired an attack on the Tennessee Coal and Iron company. Such a thing is absolutely false."

Mr. Laddard made a defense of the absorption of the Tennessee company and said he never saw anything illegal in it. He said: "Since the recent decisions of our learned chief justice, I am more than ever convinced that it was not illegal."

EMBEZZLER GIVES HIMSELF UP TO THE POLICE

Penniless and Starving Man Who Stole $45,000 From Pearl, Ill., Bank Surrenders to Officers in San Francisco

(By Evening Herald A. P. Leased Wire)
San Francisco, July 29.—Carey A. Manker, 60 years old, arose from his "top" in a water front lodging house early today, walked between rows of sleeping "dossers" to where the proprietor sat on a little desk watching to see that each lodger kept to the space allotted him.

I am a fugitive from Pearl, Illinois," Manker said. "I embezzled $45,000 from the bank of Pearl, wrecked the institution and escaped, I am starving and want to give myself up. I have been hunted since 1908."

A policeman was called and Manker taken to the city prison. Investigation shows his story to be true.

"Thirty-five thousand dollars was gambled in stocks," he told the police. "I made a desperate attempt to cover the shortage in my accounts and stole $10,000 more. Then I fled. I have been in nearly every city in the country, working at anything I could do. I am old and broken and starving. I have given up the fight."

Manker came to San Francisco from Portland a week ago. He has sought work as a waiter in water front lodging houses and lived on free lunches given him at saloons.

SLEEPING MAN IS DISSOLUTION OF THE CANADIAN PARLIAMENT IS EFFECTED

Francisco Olguin Goes on a Rampage and Fires Into Fellow Employee's Eye Causing Instant Death.

MURDERER IS NOW IN GALLUP JAIL

(Special Telegram to Evening Herald)

Gallup, N. M., July 29.—Francisco Olguin was shot and instantly killed at Peru, a siding east of Wingate station yesterday morning by Peñecito Hernandez, a fellow workman. There was apparently no motive for the act. Later he shot D. Saito in the right ear, and surrendered to Sheriff T. P. Tafoya. Though he had the Winchester 30-06 rifle with which he shot Olguin and a .44 calibre revolver when arrested, Hernandez made no attempt to fight, except with his bare hands.

He has been placed in the McKinley county jail at Gallup. Olguin's body is at the undertaking establishment of R. Hedow.

Hernandez was resting under a water car, apparently asleep, when Hernandez went up to him and placing the rifle against his right eye shot a bullet into his brain. No attempt was made to arrest the murderer at the time, and a few minutes later he approached two workmen who were eating their lunch, and fired at Saito. The shot entered his right arm near the elbow.

Hernandez attempted to get away but was taken into custody by Sheriff Tafoya. He is said to have had a trial quarrel with the man he killed on the night of the morning before the shooting took place.

He was placed in the McKinley county jail at Gallup. Olguin's body is at the undertaking establishment of R. Hedow.

The present liberal government has a large majority in the dominion parliament but the absence of a closure rule has made it impossible to secure a vote by which this majority could adopt the reciprocity measure. In the event of the success of the Liberal party at the polls in September the new parliament will at once pass the reciprocity measure, whereas a defeat of the Liberals will mean the passing of Premier Laurier and the permanent shelving of reciprocity between the United States and Canada.

The present house of commons consists of 133 Liberals, 85 Conservatives and three independents.

Adjournment Today Comes As Culmination of Premier Laurier's Ultimatum Delivered Last Monday.
